

User enters their email and password and clicks on log in

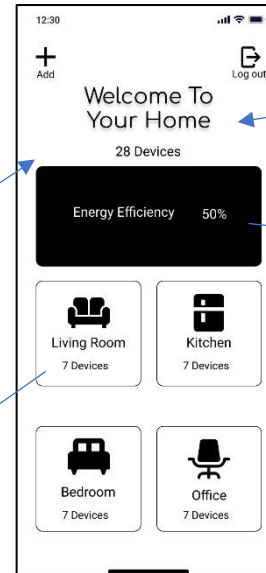

User is presented with error message every time they click on the wrong button during the whole use of the UI

User enters their email and password and clicks on log in

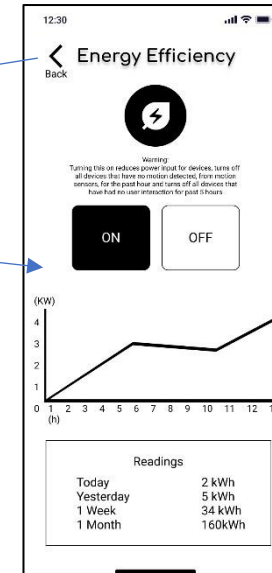

User sees energy efficiency is 50% and clicks on it

This leads to the home page of the app

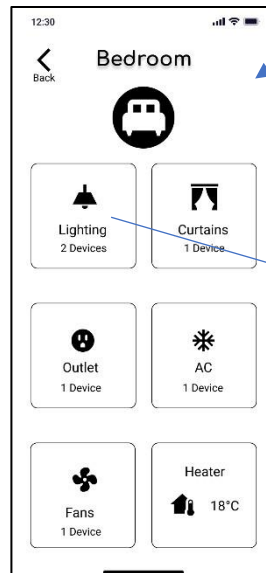

User is directed back to home page

This leads to the energy efficiency page

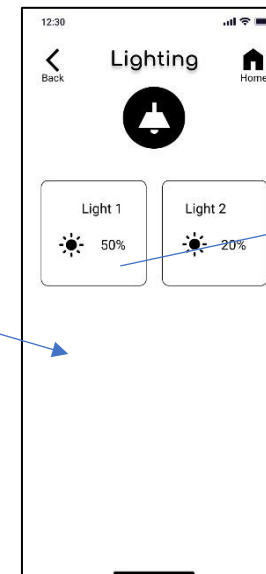

User clicks on the "on" button to turn off energy efficiency. Then user clicks the back button

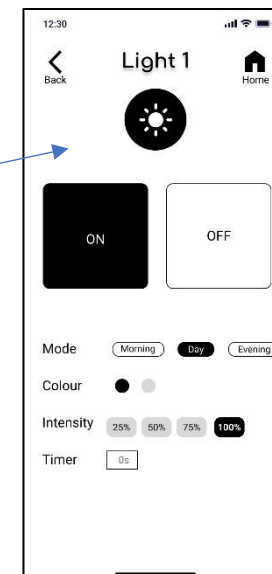

This leads to lighting devices list in the bedroom

User selects light 1

This leads to light 1 settings page

User clicks on the "on" button to turn light 1 off in the bedroom